Community Christian Choir Concert Benefits Families In Transition, Inc.

Christmas for Families In Transition, Inc. came early in December when on December 2nd, the Community Christian Choir and Community Christian Children's Choir gave a concert for its benefit and over $1,100.00 was raised! FIT, a transitional housing program in Mercer County received the entirety of the free will offering held during the performance at Robbinsville Seventh Day Adventist Church, Robbinsville, NJ. The CCC/CCCC known for innovative, spirit-filled Christian music programming sang traditional and new contemporary music in a program titled "More Than A Story", under the direction of Pat Weitz.

Community Christian Choir is a contemporary choir whose mission is to provide excellence in music ministry and to also serve the community through its concerts. All concerts by the choir benefit local charities. All are free but free will offerings are collected with all proceeds to charity. Celebrating its 26th season in the fall of 2007, the CCC/CCCC offers a music ministry for ages 5 to Adult. Rehearsals take place at the Allentown United Methodist Church in Allentown, NJ under the direction of Pat Weitz, Hamilton, NJ. "More Than A Story" delivered the Christmas message creatively through music, movement, narration and other forms of meaningful technology. Stunning harmonies from young children and adults resonate throughout the hall. For additional information visit the choir's website: www.ccchoir.com or call 609 587-7076

Families In Transition, Inc. is a non-profit organization whose mission is to provide services and housing to the working poor and homeless so that they may transition into independence and self-sufficiency. FIT is centered in Mercer, County and has served over 15 families in it's 14 years of existence. Focusing on families with children, FIT's goal is to provide stable environments for children to grown and develop while their parents learn skills to provide support for their families. For additional information visit the FIT website: www.TrentonFIT.org.
